

Friends of Leominster Library

PRESS RELEASE

For immediate release 25 September 2015

As the campaign to Save Leominster Library draws to its climax, Jimmy Lindsay, Chairman of the Friends of Leominster Library (FOLL) presented a petition containing 3,516 signatures to Brian Wilcox, Chairman, Herefordshire Council on the steps of Shire Hall in Hereford today, 25 September 2015.

Lindsay emphasised the significance of number of signatures in a town with a population of around 12,000. He went on to point out that there is also strong support from the Leominster business community and the staff and students of the Earl Mortimer College as demonstrated by their combined support for the petition and help in collecting signatures. Lindsay also noted the efforts of the Leominster group of the National Citizens Service to garner more signatures at their stall in the Leominster Friday market.

From Left: Jimmy Lindsay, Chmn FOLL; Cllr Jenny Bartlett; Cllr & Leominster Mayor Felicity Norman; Cllr Brian Wilcox, Chmn Herefordshire Council

Contact:

Tom Harvey
Friends of Leominster Library
01568 610675
twharvey@talktalk.net